

Entrance Examination for Graduate School of Regional Design in
Art and Economics,
Saga University,
October 1, 2024 - April 1, 2025

Regional Management Course

Subject : DEVELOPMENT ECONOMICS

Attention

1. Do not open the question papers until told to do so.
2. Write your examinee number on the top of the Answer Sheet before writing your answer.
3. Write your answer on the lined space of the Answer Sheet. You can use both sides of the Answer Sheet.
4. You can use the other sheet for taking notes. This sheet is to be collected with the Answer Sheet. You are reminded that anything you write on the sheet for taking notes is not taken into consideration for marking.
5. Follow the instructions given by the supervisors.

Entrance Examination for Graduate School of Regional Design

Please select and answer only ONE of the following questions.

Question 1

How are Poverty, Economic growth and the Environment interrelated? What steps might governments in less-developed countries take to reduce environmental problems.

Question 2

What are the major socioeconomic challenges faced by developing countries today? Explain how the international community can contribute to overcoming these challenges.